World Book Day Thursday 6th March 2025 – a day to help foster a love of reading in our children.

Dear Parents/Carers,

World Book Day is fast approaching! To celebrate this day, we have decided to come to school in our pyjamas, embracing the comfort and relaxation of 'reading at home'. Our focus this year is 'Do you judge a book by its cover?', which will hopefully create plenty of book talk! The children are also invited to bring into school their favourite story to share with their class and friends.

We have a very exciting day planned, including lots of book-related activities aimed at promoting reading enjoyment across our school community.

Thank you for your continued support in fostering a love of reading within our school. We look forward to a fantastic World Book Day filled with enthusiasm and inspiration.

Kind regards,

Mrs Newlands
Assistant Headteacher

World Book Day Book Token

World Book Day celebrates the joy and value of books and reading, especially for children. To encourage and help them on their reading journey, every child will receive a £1 book token which can be exchanged for one free World Book Day 2025 book, or £1 off a book costing £2.99 or more.

You can find out more information about this on the token given or the World Book Day website.

Here are the books you can purchase with your token.
